

L'INCORONAZIONE DI POPPEA

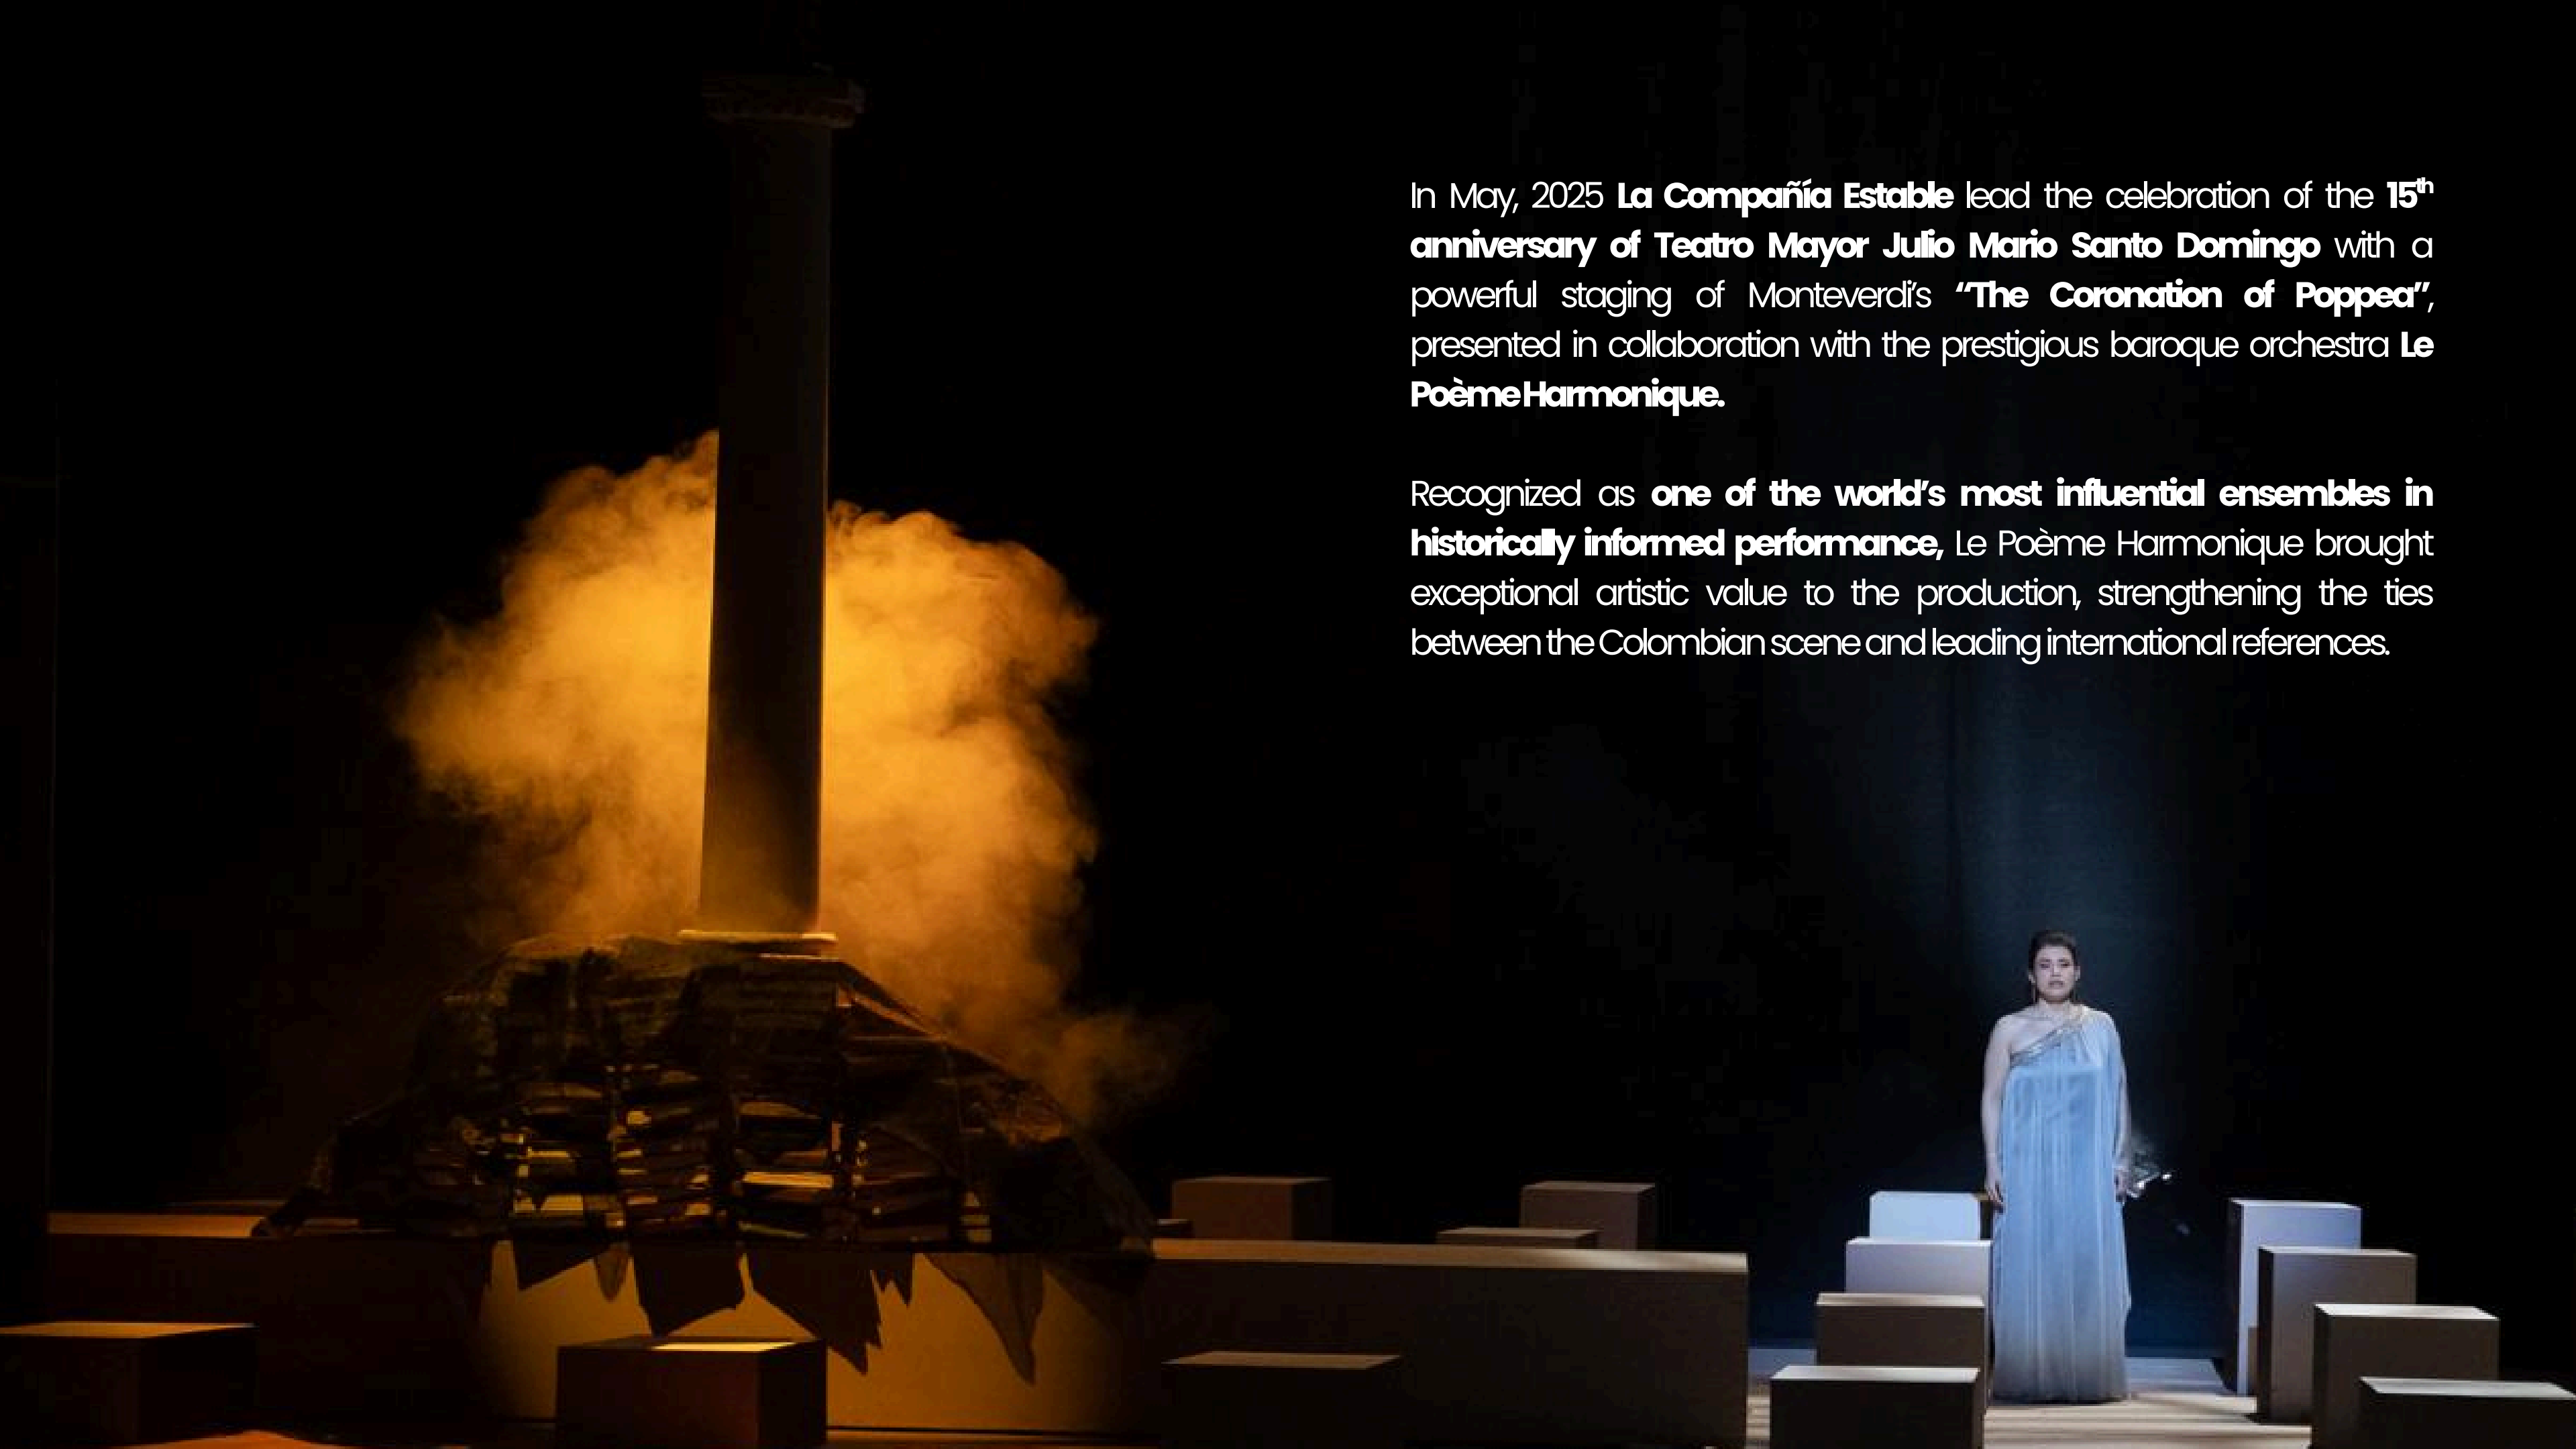

MUSICAL DIRECTION:
VINCENT DUMESTRE

STAGE DIRECTION:
PEDRO SALAZAR

CO-PRODUCTION WITH
TEATRO MAYOR JULIO MARIO SANTODOMINGO
OPERA BY CLAUDIO MONTEVERDI
LE POÈME HARMONIQUE ORCHESTRA
MAY 23TH TO 25TH, 2025.

In May, 2025 La Compañía Estable lead the celebration of the 15th anniversary of Teatro Mayor Julio Mario Santo Domingo with a powerful staging of Monteverdi's "The Coronation of Poppea", presented in collaboration with the prestigious baroque orchestra Le Poème Harmonique.

Recognized as one of the world's most influential ensembles in historically informed performance, Le Poème Harmonique brought exceptional artistic value to the production, strengthening the ties between the Colombian scene and leading international references.

DIRECTORS

VINCENT DUMESTRE

(musical director)

Conductor, lutenist, and specialist in early music, Vincent Dumestre trained at the Conservatoire National Supérieur de Musique de Paris before focusing on historical plucked instruments such as the lute and theorbo.

In 1998, he founded Le Poème Harmonique, an ensemble internationally recognized for its historically informed performances of 17th- and early 18th-century repertoire. Under his direction, the group has gained international recognition for its historically informed interpretations, combining musical rigor with theatrical and visual elements that evoke the aesthetic of the Baroque period.

Dumestre has performed in major opera houses and festivals worldwide and is widely acclaimed for his interpretations of composers such as Monteverdi, Lully, and Purcell. He is also active as a pedagogue, regularly leading workshops and masterclasses on Baroque performance practice.

(stage director)

PEDRO SALAZAR

Theatre director and producer born in Bogotá, Colombia. Salazar has directed more than thirty productions across different genres. He founded La Compañía Estable in 2008, becoming one of the most important opera companies in the country. Some of their most recent opera productions include The Coronation of Poppea, La Traviata, Tosca, and The Marriage of Figaro (in co-production with Teatro Mayor de Bogotá), Le Vorágine (J. G. Ripper), Bluebeard's Castle by Bartók, Dido and Aeneas, Florencia en el Amazonas (in collaboration with CNA Delia Zapata Olivella – Teatro Colón), and Peter Grimes by Benjamin Britten with the Amazonas Opera Festival in Manaus, Brazil.

In theatre, Salazar has directed Macbeth by Shakespeare (Teatro Colón); Othello (Teatro Mayor – Jorge Eliécer Gaitán); Oresteia by Aeschylus/Icke; 53 Sundays; The Upstairs Neighbors by Cesc Gay; Noises Off by Michael Frayn; The Shape of Things by Neil LaBute; Stones in His Pockets by Marie Jones (Teatro Nacional); The Pillowman by Martin McDonagh; and Life Is a Dream by Calderón de la Barca (Teatro Libre).

Salazar trained as a theatre director at Columbia University and at the Jacques Lecoq Theatre School. He has led the Performing Arts program at Universidad de los Andes and has established himself as one of the country's most important directors, with a decisive trajectory in the development of opera and contemporary theatre in Colombia.

CO-PRODUCERS

LA COMPAÑÍA ESTABLE

Founded in 2008 by theatre director Pedro Salazar, La Compañía Estable was created with the purpose of strengthening the performing arts' craft in Bogotá and across Colombia, and of establishing itself as a permanent space for exploration, in-depth artistic practice, and stage production. Over more than fifteen years, the company's exploration of different theatrical languages and styles has been oriented towards approaching theatre and opera from a contemporary, rigorous perspective, open to international dialogue.

Salazar, born and raised in Bogotá, has had a long and distinguished career. With a strong international academic background in theatre studies, he holds a master's degree in theatre direction from Columbia University and underwent professional training at Jacques Lecoq's theatre school in France. He has directed the Performing Arts Program at the Universidad de los Andes and has established himself as one of the country's most important directors, with a pivotal influence in the development of opera and contemporary theatre in Colombia.

LE POÈME HARMONIQUE

Founded in 1998 by Vincent Dumestre, Le Poème Harmonique is a leading French ensemble dedicated to the performance of 17th- and early 18th-century music. Internationally acclaimed, the ensemble is known for its vivid and theatrical interpretations, developing a distinctive artistic language that merges musical rigor with dramatic storytelling.

Through extensive touring, recordings, and collaborations with major festivals and institutions, the ensemble has played a central role in renewing contemporary audiences' engagement with early music.

TEATRO MAYOR JULIO MARIO SANTO DOMINGO

Founded in 2010, Teatro Mayor Julio Mario Santo Domingo is one of Latin America's leading performing arts venues, located in Bogotá, Colombia.

Conceived as a multidisciplinary cultural center, it presents a diverse program that includes opera, theater, dance, concerts, and musical theater, hosting both national and international artists of the highest level.

The theater is recognized for its technical excellence and for fostering artistic exchange, frequently collaborating with major companies, orchestras, and festivals from around the world.

Beyond its mainstage productions, Teatro Mayor is deeply committed to cultural development and audience engagement, offering educational programs, community outreach initiatives, and support for emerging artists.

Through its programming and institutional vision, it has become a key platform for the performing arts in Colombia and a central hub for cultural life in the region.

ABOUT THE PRODUCTION

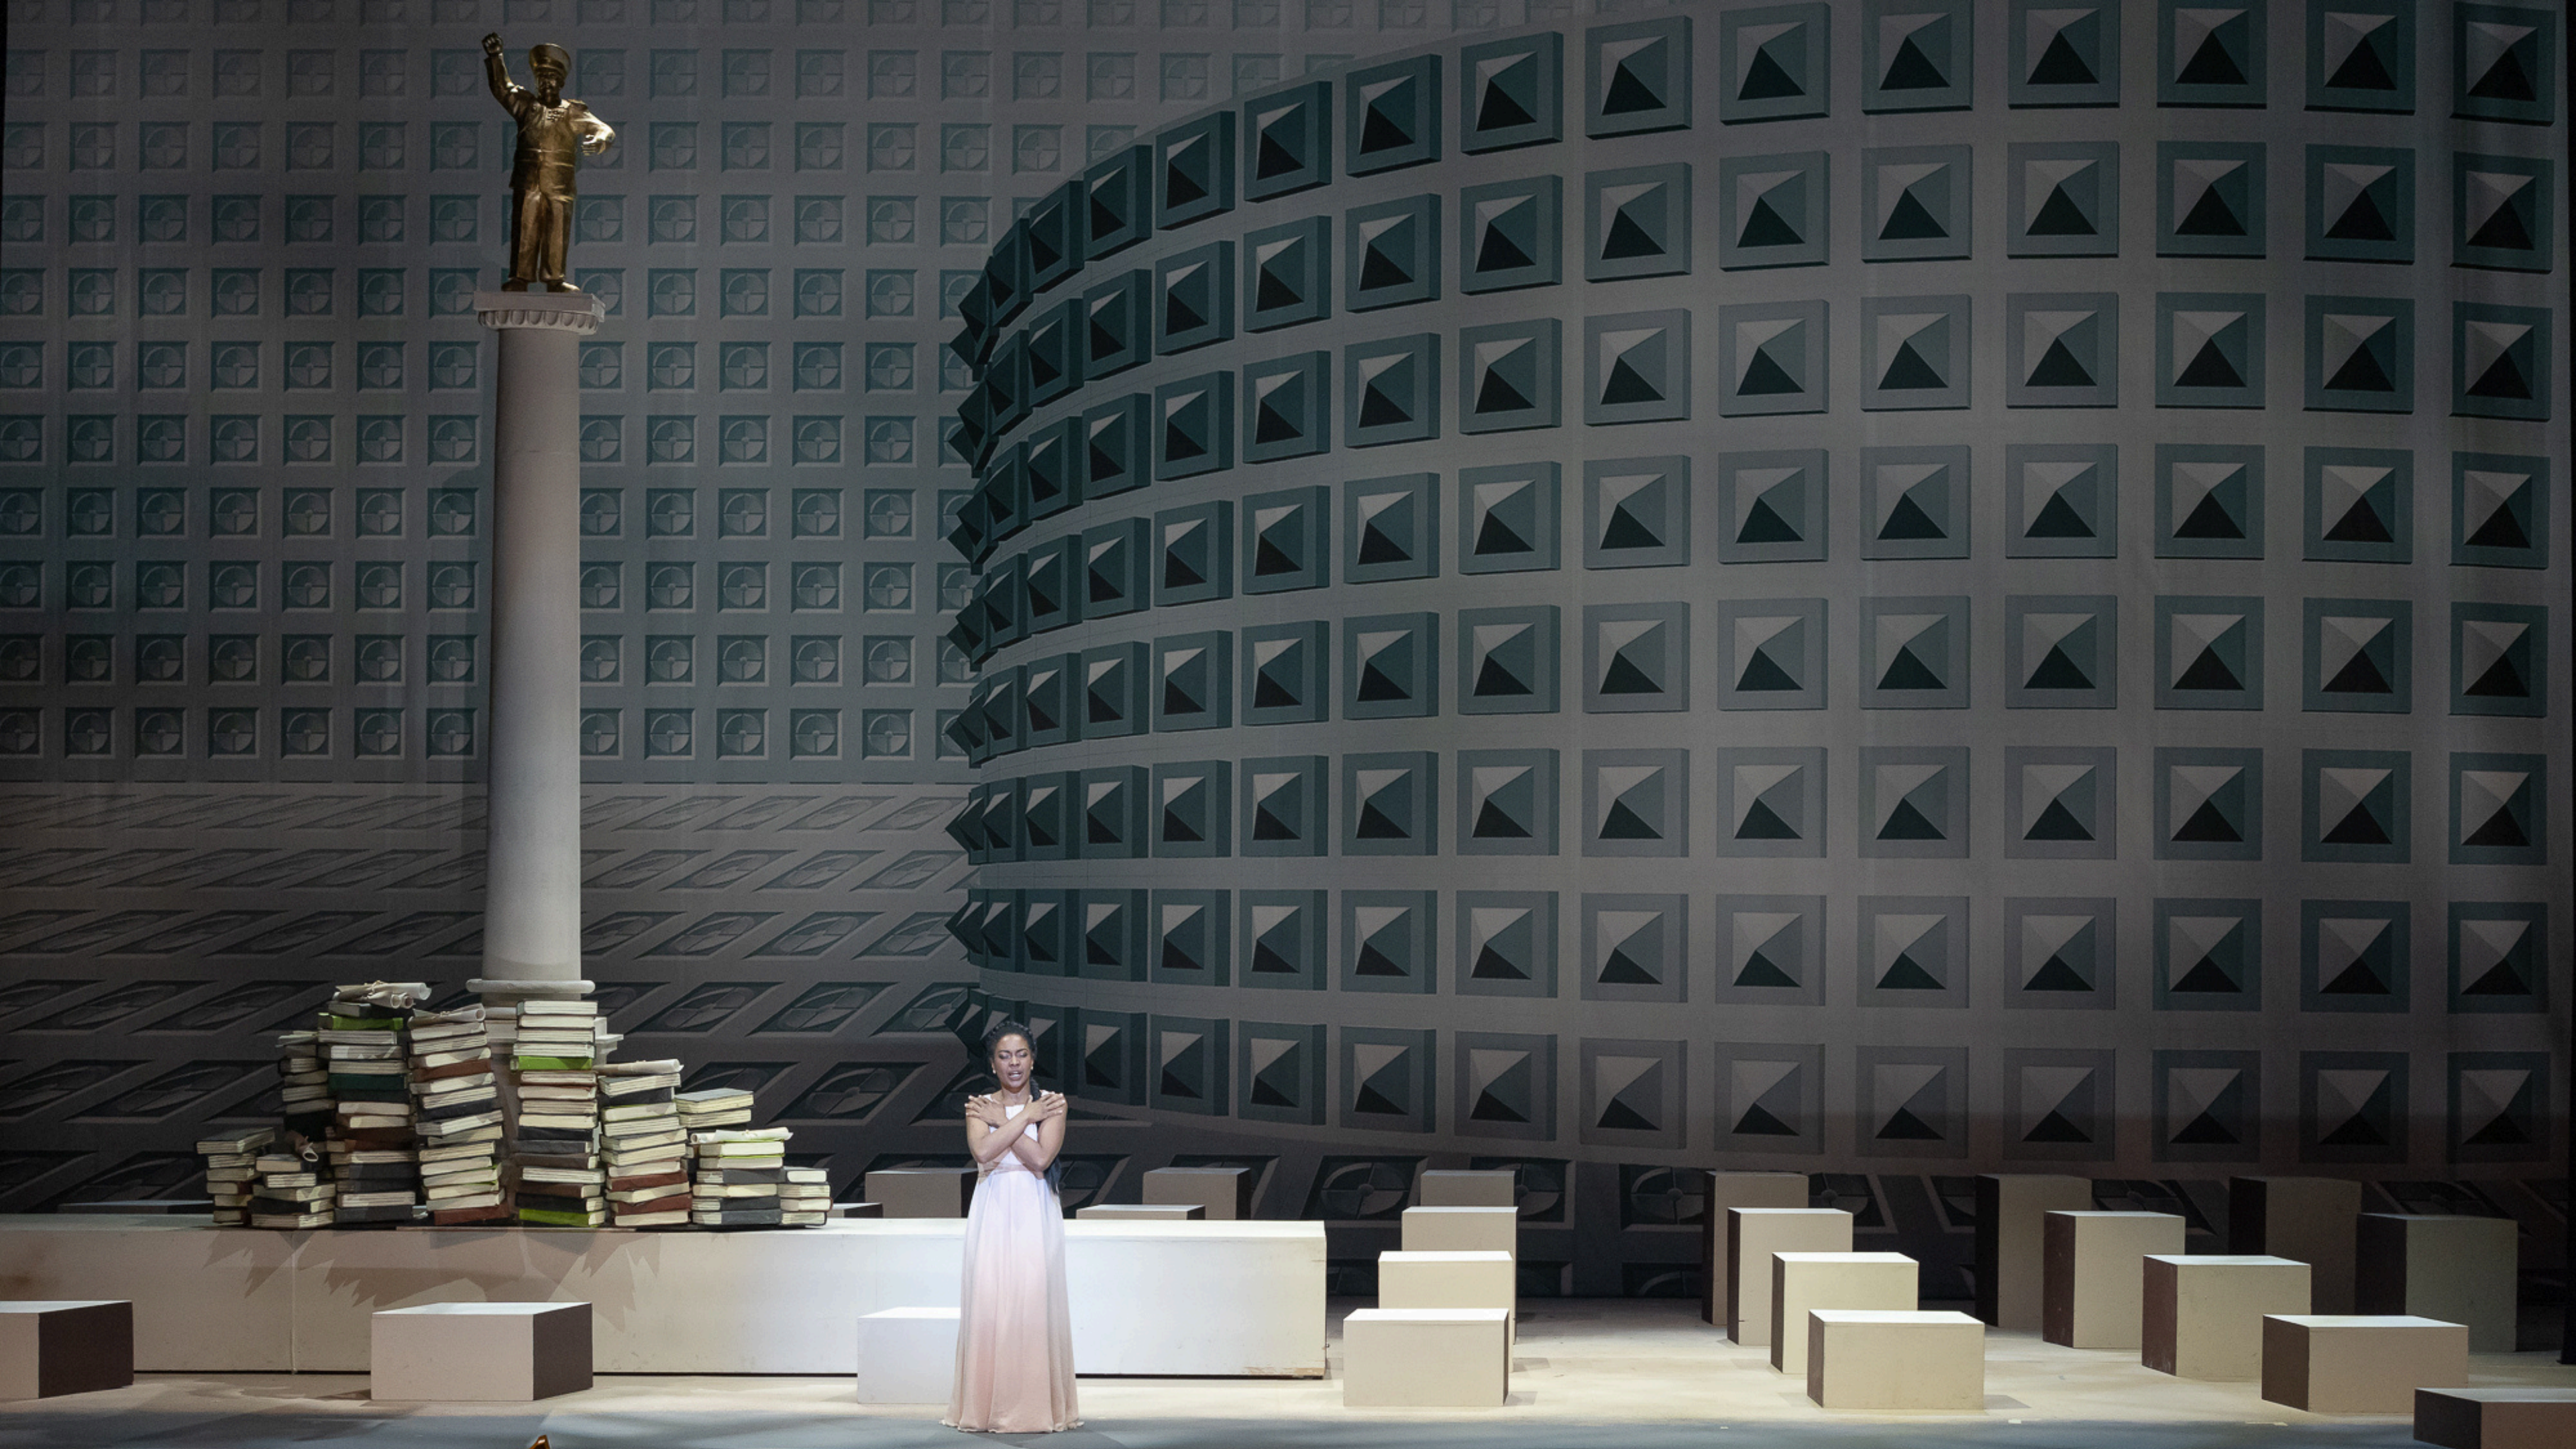

15TH ANNIVERSARY GALA

As part of this co-production, the 15th anniversary of Teatro Mayor Julio Mario Santo Domingo was celebrated—one of the country's most important cultural venues and a fundamental strategic partner in the trajectory of La Compañía Estable.

This collaboration not only reaffirmed a long-standing working relationship, but also became a symbolic milestone for both institutions.

As part of the commemoration, a special gala was held featuring a concert of music from The Coronation of Poppea, officially opening the anniversary celebrations and highlighting the Teatro Mayor's role as one of the leading drivers of operatic and performing arts development in Colombia.

CONTEMPORARY VISION

At the heart of this production is a fully Latin American cast, whose voices and perspectives bring renewed urgency and intimacy to the work. Andrea Niño emerges as a central presence, shaping the dramatic arc with nuance and depth, alongside Lucciana Mancini and Yeraldine León, and a cast that elevates the production through its collective strength and chemistry.

The staging embraces a bold queer vision, reimagining relationships and power dynamics while actively interrogating traditional gender roles. In doing so, it presents a fluid and contemporary reading of identity and desire, where characters transcend fixed norms and inhabit a more complex emotional landscape.

Through this lens, The Coronation of Poppea is situated within a contemporary dialogue on power, gender roles, and representation, resonating with modern audiences while preserving the intensity of Monteverdi's work.

ARTISTIC TEAM

JULIÁN HOYOS

Hoyos studied architecture at Cornell University and earned a master's degree in scenic design from NYU. He has designed sets for theatre, opera, dance, and musicals in the United States and Colombia. He has worked with the Pittsburgh Opera Center, New Opera NYC, Harvard Art Institute, and Repertorio Español. In Colombia, he has designed for the Teatro Colón, MISI Producciones, L'Explose Danza, and the Teatro Nacional.

Together with Pedro Salazar, he has worked on operas such as The Magic Flute, Dido and Aeneas, The Barber of Seville, Tosca, The Marriage of Figaro, Bluebeard's Castle, and La Traviata.

SANDRA DÍAZ

Díaz holds a master's degree in textile studies with an emphasis on costume design. For ten years, she worked as an assistant to Adán Martínez in opera, theatre, and film projects. Between 2010 and 2014, she led the cataloguing of the Teatro Colón de Bogotá costume collection and collaborated with the Museo del Teatro in Almagro, Spain.

In 2018, she took over Adán Martínez's costume workshop and co-designed the costumes for Der Rosenkavalier. She has worked on operas such as The Marriage of Figaro, Così fan tutte, and La Traviata. In 2023, she designed the costumes for Bluebeard's Castle by Béla Bartók, presented at the Teatro Colón de Bogotá.

ARTISTIC TEAM

MUSICAL DIRECTOR

VINCENT DUMESTRE

STAGE DIRECTOR

PEDRO SALAZAR

SET DESIGN

JULIÁN HOYOS

COSTUME DESIGN

SANDRA DÍAZ

LIGHTING DESIGN

HUMBERTO HERNÁNDEZ

LIBRETTO

LIGIANA COSTA

CHIEF OF PRODUCTION

PABLO RESTREPO

PROPS DESIGN

DIANA SANABRIA

ASSISTANT STAGE

DIRECTOR AND

CHOREOGRAPHER

DAVID SUÁREZ DUSSAN

LE POÈME HARMONIQUE

ORCHESTRA

LA COMPAÑÍA ESTABLE

LACOMPANIAESTABLE@GMAIL.COM
TEL: (+57) 311 812 5818
WWW.LACOMPANIAESTABLE.COM
@LACOMPANIAESTABLE